V.D. Mahajan's
JURISPRUDENCE AND LEGAL THEORY

JURISPRUDENCE has described jurisprudence as 'the part of the law giving an insight into the development of which it is the expression. It is the law in the spirit of the time and when it is such, the development of which is a part of the law. The jurisprudence is not a part of a particular law which means other 'knowledge of law' or 'law in law'. There has been a shift from the law in the current and jurisprudence which is expressed in an attempt to broaden and make it more comprehensive than it has been understood.

The new edition of V.D. Mahajan's jurisprudence & legal theory has been completely revised, updated and enlarged with a lot of modernisation in order to make it more comprehensive and useful. This book is an excellent attempt to explain the legal concepts and the theories of law, including its nature, its origin and modern trends. The author has devoted separate chapters to all important topics, viz. nature & scope of jurisprudence, historical, present and future jurisprudence, its study, its methods, its scope and its relation to other branches of law. The author has also dealt with the concepts of jurisprudence and its relation to other branches of law. 23.10. The Plaintiffs have the exclusive right to publish the afore-mentioned textbooks and the Defendants have no authority to either publish or reprint the same without Plaintiffs' consent. Further, given that these books do not originate from the Plaintiffs, they may also contain incorrect or outdated information, which could damage the Plaintiffs' well-established reputation.

24. The facts narrated above and the documents placed on record as well as the specimens of the original and infringing products produced during the hearing and returned, demonstrate that Defendants No. 1 to 9 have entirely replicated the make and design of the Plaintiffs' books. The differences highlighted by the Plaintiffs between the original and pirated books published by the Defendants are inconsequential, especially considering the mode through which the books are sold – on Flipkart platform. Consumers purchasing the infringing books through online modes will be unable to identify the points of distinction, which would typically manifest in physical copies of the books. The Defendants are also prima facie using the Plaintiffs' registered trademarks on their products without Plaintiffs' approval, resulting in infringement of their trademarks. These activities can possibly cause financial losses to the Plaintiffs and damage their reputation and goodwill. It is thus a clear case of rank trademark and copyright infringement.

25. In view of the above, the Court is convinced that Plaintiffs have made out a prima facie case in their favour and in case an ex-parte ad-interim injunction is not granted, the Plaintiffs will suffer an irreparable loss; balance of convenience also lies in favour of the Plaintiffs and against Defendants No. 1 to 9.

26. Accordingly, till the next date of hearing:

26.1. Defendants No. 1 to 9, or any person acting on their behalf, are restrained from manufacturing, publishing, selling, offering for sale, advertising, using, exporting, printing, directly or indirectly selling or dealing in products, including, but not limited to books under the trademarks “EBC” and “EASTERN BOOK COMPANY” or any other work which may be identical to, or deceptively similar with, or derived from, or be an imitation of the Plaintiffs’ registered trademarks or their trade dress/ label/ logo/ packaging/ get-up or be a colourable imitation and/ or a substantial reproduction of the Plaintiffs’ “EBC” and “Eastern Book Company” labels/ packaging/ logos that may amount to infringement and passing off of the Plaintiffs’ registered trademarks and copyright.

26.2. Defendant No. 10 is directed to block the listings of counterfeit/ infringing products published by Defendants No. 1 to 8 on its e-commerce portal that infringe the Plaintiffs’ trademarks and copyright. In case the Plaintiffs discover any other listings of counterfeit books, they shall identify the URLs and share the same with Defendant No. 10, who shall thereafter takedown/ block the listings, in accordance with law. In the event Defendant No. 10 comes to a conclusion that the listings supplied by Plaintiff are not identical to the content that has been injuncted today, they shall inform the Plaintiffs of the same, within a period of one week from the date of receipt of the request, whereafter Plaintiffs shall be free to take recourse to appropriate measures available under law.

26.3. Defendant No. 10 shall, within one week from today, provide the addresses/ location of premises/ stores/ warehouses/ godowns of Defendants No. 1 to 9 where the impugned counterfeit products are stored, to the counsel for Plaintiffs.

27. Upon filing of process fee, issue notice to the Defendants, by all permissible modes, returnable on the next date of hearing.
28. Reply, if any, be filed within four weeks from the date of service. Rejoinder thereto, if any, be filed within two weeks thereafter.
29. Compliance of Order XXXIX Rule 3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 shall be done within two weeks from today.
30. List on 28th October, 2024.

I.A. 30349/2024 (seeking urgent directions against D-10)

31. Counsel for Plaintiffs contends that Defendant No. 10 – Flipkart India Private Limited, who operates the online platform Flipkart.com, is likely to have the copies of the counterfeit/ pirated books in their warehouse, which would be shipped to the customers to ensure a faster delivery of the products purchased from their website. In these circumstances, he states that Defendant No. 10 must be directed to make a full disclosure regarding the source of counterfeit versions of the books published by the Plaintiffs, which are in their possession. Additionally, he states that Defendant No. 10 must, for the time being, also surrender the counterfeit copies of the books to the Plaintiffs and must not be allowed to release any payments from such sale to Defendants No. 1 to 8.
32. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, which demonstrate ex-facie infringement of Plaintiffs' trademarks and copyright through the sale of products on Defendant No. 10's platform, the Court finds merit in the request of the Plaintiffs, as noted above.
33. Accordingly, the following directions are issued:

33.1. Defendant No. 10 shall, within two weeks from today, hand over all the copies of respective counterfeit books of the Plaintiffs' original publications as detailed in paragraph No. 23.6 of this order to Plaintiffs on superdari on their undertaking to produce the same as and when further directions are issued in this regard.

33.2. Defendant No. 10 shall, within two weeks from today, file an affidavit disclosing the available details of Defendants No. 1 to 8, such as, their address, mobile numbers, email addresses, total statement of accounts, including all the sales made by Defendants No. 1 to 8 since the date the listings were posted, and GST details. A copy of the said documents shall also be furnished to the counsel for Plaintiffs.

33.3. Defendant No. 10 shall not release any payments to Defendants No. 1 to 8 in respect of the sales effected through their website in relation to the counterfeit products.

34. With the above directions, the application is disposed of.

I.A. 30348/2024 (seeking appointment of local commissioners)

35. Counsel for Plaintiffs submits that the Defendants are aware of the Plaintiffs and their products. The infringing materials placed on record are clear evidence of the intention of the Defendants to ride upon the goodwill and reputation of the Plaintiffs. The Plaintiffs believe that the infringing products are sold at the locations set out in paragraph No. 7(a) of the application and the Defendants are likely to remove all physical evidence or deny their involvement in the infringing activities. Therefore, in order to preserve evidence of infringement, it is necessary that Local Commissioners are appointed to visit the premises of the Defendants.
