Sri. Renjith Thampan, the learned Senior counsel appearing on instructions of Advocate V.M. Krishnakumar submits that the elephant 'Abhimanyu', which is now in the custody of the Forest Department pursuant to the orders issued by this Court may be returned to its owner/custodian. In order to consider this prayer, we direct the projected owner/custodian to produce details of the ownership of the said elephant or the authority under which he is holding the elephant by the next date of posting.

2. Sri. Nagaraj Narayanan, the Special Government Pleader Forest submits that the details of all the captive elephants in the State available with the Forest Department have been received and the list of the elephants will be placed before this Court by the next date of posting.

3. Sri. Ramesh Babu, the learned Senior counsel assisting this Court as Amicus curiae pointed out the urgent need for providing fencing in the waste dumpyard being used by the Munnar Grama Panchayath at Kallar to prevent the entry of wild elephants into the area. The learned Standing counsel appearing for the Munnar Grama Panchayath submits that there is an extreme shortage of funds to the Panchayath. We have requested the Additional Advocate General to obtain instructions as to whether the funds can be provided by the Government in the first instance and on account to be adjusted against other amounts payable by the Government to the Panchayath. We also request the learned Additional Advocate General to inform us as to whether any funds available with the District Disaster Management Authority can be used for the said purpose.

4. We have been informed of a shocking incident where the mahout of an elephant that has been used for Safari in Idukki district was killed by the elephant. It is stated that the said safaries are totally illegal and nearly 36 elephants are being used for such safaries across the State without any permission from any authority including the Forest Department. The District Collector, Idukki, is directed to place a report regarding the legal basis for the conduct of these so called safaries by private individuals. The District Collector shall also place details of any compensation that has been given to the family of the deceased mahout.

I.A.No.21 of 2024:

Sri. Sandesh Raja, the learned counsel appearing for the applicant in this I.A would submit that the sanction has been accorded for construction activities worth about Rs.2 crores for the purposes of ecotourism at the Kuruva Island. The learned Additional Advocate General shall obtain urgent instructions as to how such sanction has been granted for construction activities.

2. In the light of the orders issued by us regarding the conduct of the ecotourism centre at Kuruva Island, we deem it appropriate to direct that no construction activities shall be continued at Kuruva Island without obtaining further orders from this Court.

3. The Kerala Police Housing and Construction Corporation Ltd, Chandrasekharan Nair Stadium, Palayam, Thiruvananthapuram – 695033 and K.J. Raphel, Kuruppassery House, Arattuthara Mananthavady, Wayanad District, are suo motu impleaded as additional respondents 69 and 70 in the Writ Petition and also in this I.A. Sri.Sandesh Raja the learned counsel for the applicant is directed to serve a copy of the Interlocutory Application to Sri.C.K.Govindan, who is stated to be the learned Standing counsel for the Kerala Police
