Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in those proceedings, a report was submitted by the Police Station, Hapur Nagar, District Hapur that primarily it is a civil dispute and by passing two detailed separate orders dated 8.2.2024, Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hapur dismissed the applications filed under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. by informant observing that the matter is purely of a civil nature. State of U.P. and 7 others) by which it has been specifically directed that w.e.f. 1.5.2024, no FIR will be registered without taking the opinion of D.G.C.( Criminal).

8. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that even without following the direction issued in the order dated 18.4.2024, Vivek Kumar Chauhan, S.H.O./ Inspector has registered the present FIR despite the fact that the Chief Judicial Magistrate has already passed two separate detailed order on 8.2.2024 holding that no cognizable offence is made out as the dispute is purely of civil nature.
