THIS OP KERALA ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL HAVING HAVING BEEN FINALLY HEARD ON 15.10.2024 ON, ALONG WITH OP(KAT).538/2023, THE COURT ON 21.10.2024 DELIVERED THE FOLLOWING:

JUDGMENT

[OP(KAT) Nos.538/2023 & 539/2023]

A.Muhamed Mustague, J.

These original petitions were filed by the Kerala Public Service Commission (KPSC) challenging orders of the Kerala Administrative Tribunal in different applications, raising a common point of law.

2. The applicants before the Tribunal are included in the ranked list published by the KPSC for appointment as Non-Vocational Teacher (English) in Kerala Vocational Higher Secondary Education Department from by transfer category. 15% of the total posts of Non-Vocational Teacher (English) is set apart for appointment by transfer from qualified High School Assistant and 5% is set apart for appointment by transfer from qualified LP/UP Assistant. The applicants before the Tribunal are coming under both categories.

- 3. Ranked list from direct recruitment expired on 2/2/2020. There were 7 NJD vacancies from the general category. Ranked list for appointment from by transfer category continue to operate. Taking note of the fact that there were 7 NJD vacancies which were reported to KPSC after the expiry of the ranked list from direct recruitment, the Tribunal ordered that the Director of the VHSE shall report to the KPSC such NJD vacancies to be filled up from by transfer category. KPSC questions this order of the Tribunal.
- 4. The stand of the KPSC is that NJD vacancies will have to be treated separately and they will have to renotify inviting applications from general category. It is pointed out that there may be roster turn in those vacancies and that can be filled only in accordance with the roster turn. It is submitted that if such NJD vacancies are ordered to be filled from a separate list of by transfer category, it will derail rotation. We find force in this argument. NJD vacancies in general category cannot be made available for appointment from by transfer category after the expiry of the ranked list for appointment from direct recruitment.

5. When this matter was heard on an earlier occasion, the learned counsel for the party respondents who are the applicants before the Tribunal, submitted that there exist 4 vacancies apart from 7 NJD vacancies. Accordingly, this Court passed an order on 26/2/2024 as follows:

> As seen from the impugned order, an additional statement has also been filed by the second respondent, wherein 11 vacancies were reported and out of which, 7 vacancies were "NJD" vacancies. There should be clarity in regard to 4 vacancies apart from 7 "NJD" vacancies. The learned Government Pleader is directed to get instructions regarding the same.

Pursuant to the said direction, a counter affidavit has been filed before this Court by the Director of the VHSE. In para.11 of the counter affidavit, the vacancy reporting details have been elaborated. Para.11(4) therein reads as follows:

> 4. No. of vacancies of Non-vocational Teachers in English - 15 (as on 02.02.2020).

Out of 15 vacancies, 7 vacancies were NJD vacancies, 5 vacancies were fresh vacancies, one was due to leave without allowance and second vacancies were due to deputation. One of the fresh vacancy was reported to KPSC for by-transfer from Ministerial staff. The vacancies arose due to leave without allowance, deputation and 4 fresh vacancies were proceeded with promotion from qualified non-vocational teacher (junior) in English as on 18.07.2019. Hence non-vocational teacher juniors are already now promoted to the above 7 posts."

In the light of the above, no vacancies exist. The impugned orders are, therefore, set aside and the original petitions are allowed.
